Address all communications to THE OUTLOOK PUBLISHING CO., or to JOHN W. HONAKER, Owingsville, Ky.
Subscribers desiring a change of address should always give previous address when writing.
Correspondents when out of stationery should mention fact on a separate slip of paper.

THURSDAY, JULY 23, 1903.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Magistrate.
We are authorized to announce Thomas J. Jones as a candidate to succeed himself as Magistrate in Owingsville district, No. 6, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ALLIE YOUNG is reconciled to the Louisville catastrophe. Like the man's wife to dying—he just had to be.

BILL O'BRIEN by a short speech showed he was still the biggest Republican in Kentucky by all odds, including Deboe.

ROCKEFELLER played near in Pierpont Morgan's stock preserves last week. Morgan wouldn't let him think of it.

UNCLE SAM is shiver about presents that Jewish petition to Russia than a boy is about delivering his first love letter to his inam-orata.

BELEWAP got the nomination on the first ballot. Individually he seems to be all right, but he trains with the Sapp element, which is all wrong.

FOLK continues to unearth legislative corruption in St. Louis and the Missouri legislature. He will get himself disliked by the hoodlums if he isn't careful.

MAJOR WM. C. OWENS, Chairman, and Judge W. M. Becker, nominee for Attorney General, figured conspicuously in the Republican State convention. They are ex-Democrats.

JOHN BULL thinks maybe he has a claim to some islands off Borneo that Uncle Sam knows he owns.
When two notorious land-grabbers like these fall out look out for equals.

MOB law is growing in prevalence if not faster throughout the country. It is not a good omen, but the legal machinery of law not being properly used is largely responsible for it.

BATMAN has become such a book number that he can only hope to attract attention by abusing Cleveland and other Democrats who stand for Clevelandism, which is synonymous with Democracy.

Mrs. DORA BROOK, recently widowed, who became noted as the child wife of Gen. Cassius M. Clay, is soaverse to newspaper notoriety now that she threatened a reporter with a pistol and chased him with a broom. Hurrah for Dora!

JAMES A. BACKER, of Winchester, and Congressman W. C.
Owens, of Georgetown, were ex-Democratic conspirators at the State Republican convention. They are bigger than the men who are running the Democratic party now.

THE new celebrated Jett-White trial will begin at Cincinnati next Monday. The whole United States will watch its progress with increasing interest and the lovers of justice will hope the guilty will receive the punishment they deserve.

Tax dragnet at Washington is catching important Postoffice Department criminals right along.
Uncle Sam has been paying dearly for postal appliances bought by these scamps. With rascally eliminated maybe taxation wouldn't be quite so high.

THE PLATT wants Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, for Roosevelt's running mate in 1904. Platt is dying, so there is no telling what he will do against Aldrich, who would be a formidable in the powerful body of which he is the chief member at present.

THE makers of a certain cash register sold Uncle Sam 250 machines at $150 each because he was their Uncle, whereas they sold them in the open market at $125 each. The company got only $50 each on those sold Uncle Sam. But then some of Uncle's clerks needed the take-out.

THE colored ministers of Evansville, Ind., adopted a sensible course in passing resolutions condemning the shifless and idle negroes of that city and asking the police to deal harshly with them. White people everywhere respect worthy colored people, but they are growing more intolerant of the onary at criminal element, who are a burden on the community. There is no future for the negro except as he makes it for himself by a life of integrity and usefulness. The nigger he learns that he can secure a place for himself only by deserving it the better it will be for him.
It is no excuse for the negro that there are shifless and shifless white people too; the latter are not respected by the good white people.
As for social equality that is a bar-ren ideal, as long as human nature remains what it is, and it has never changed in that respect since recorded history began.

CAPT. B. J. EWEN made his will and set his affairs in order like a person whose life was in the utmost jeopardy before he went to attend the special court at Jackson as a witness this week. Old Kentucky will learn to do the thing better some day.

The special term of the Breath-itt Circuit Court, Judge Redwine presiding, began at Jackson Monday to investigate the burning of Capt. Ewen's hotel, the attempt to bribe Ewen, and the assassination of Cox. Judge Redwine, in an interview at Lexington with the manager of the Herald, talks like he is going to have a thorough investigation of those matters and says if the grand jury chosen does not do its duty he would set it aside and have another chosen. That is the right sort of talk and if it bears proper fruit the State will rejoice.

George McClain accidentally cut himself severely with an ax.
Clyde Pergam is employed to teach the White Sulphur school.
Mrs. Mollie Greer is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wille.
The oil fever has subsided and the pulses of the people beat more regularly.
Miss Mary Ray Trimble, of Mt.
Sterling, is visiting Miss Jennie Clayton this week.
As a couple of gentlemen were driving out of Salt Lick they observed a lot of boys and men sitting on the fence. Just as they were passing they began firing their pistols in the air. The horse took fright and ran away, amid the shouts and laughter of the crowd.

day morning. Remember, services begin Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.
The State Valley baseball team defeated the Moore's Ferry team Saturday by 20 to 16. The Moore's Ferry boys did well. The umpire made two mistakes in his decision against the Moore's Ferry boys and the State Valley club had the catcher from the Owingsville team.

Beech Woods.
Miss Earl Fitzpatrick visited Maude and Etna Bailey Monday night.
THE SICK.—Aunt Rebecca Coyle is not so well. Mrs. North is some better, we're glad to say.

Mrs. James Stone and sons Roy and Clifford spent Sunday with James McNabb and family.
Mr. and Mrs. David Norris and children and Miss Agnes Stone spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Farmers.

James B. Stone and son Elmer and little daughter Annie Mary visited Thomas Stone, of Milnersburg, from Friday until Sunday.
The drought is something serious.
We have had no rain to amount to anything since April. We had such a cold, wet spring that the ground was in such a bad shape that now it is so dry we cannot possibly raise a half crop if it rains anyway soon in this neighborhood.

Springfield.
O. B. Spratt was in Mt. Sterling Friday.
Mrs. V. M. Taylor is visiting her son Ed Taylor.

Smathers, of friends in Mt.
Sterling, Friday night and Saturday.

Misses Nell Boyd and Ethel Glover, of Mt. Sterling, and Messrs.
Robert Wells, of Mt. Sterling, and Nute Tule, of Sharpsburg, were the guests of Miss Lida Smathers Sunday.

Mrs. Joan Chaney entertained at dinner Monday in honor of her son's eighteenth birthday. About thirty guests were present. They were entertained with lunch in the morning and at one o'clock an elegant dinner was served; in the afternoon a number of those present enjoyed a game of baseball.

Stepstone.
Rain is what we need, and if it doesn't come this week we will suffer much.

Mrs. Ann E. Gatewood spent from Saturday till Monday visiting friends in Mt. Sterling.

W. T. Payne, son William and daughter-in-law spent Sunday with his father-in-law John Karriek and wife.

Brown and Miss Mary Jones spent last Thursday with Mrs. Foster, near Spencer.

Our Sunday-school will hold their picnic in R. L. Goodpastor's grove, on Salt Well, August 22d.
Everybody is invited.

J. L. Anderson, of Louisville, is selling stereoscopic views; says he is doing well at this point. He is boarding with Isaac Karriek.

Miss Sude Stout, who has been teaching music at Farmers and Salt Lick for the past three months, closed out her term and returned home last Wednesday.

G. C. Montjoy and sister spent most of last week here picking blackberries; said they were too scarce at his place (Ewington) so came here for their winter's supply.

One day last week the people of this neighborhood did 100 gallons or more of berries here to sell to the train men on local freight trains; other days they had some to, but not as many as on that special day.

THOS. J. JONES,
Livestock, Feed & Sale Stable, OWINGSVILLE, KY.
Headquarters for horse and mule buyers. Telephone connection with Preston Station.

OLD HICKORY.—A drink that "reaches the spot" and leaves no "headache in the morning." The real Old Kentucky article. Keep it on hand for family use. For sale by S. P. Atchledge.

Okla.
Rain is needed very much.
Mrs. James Flora is mending slowly.
The wheat was all threshed here last week.
The show was good here last Wednesday night.
Chas. Barber began teaching the fall term of school here last Monday.

Miss Ellen Denton, of near Grange City, is here visiting relatives and friends.
Quite a number of our young folks went to Eden's Chapel Sunday eve to church.
J. M. Crain sold a bunch of fat hogs to a Fleming county buyer at 10 per lb. to be delivered this week.
Clem Riddle's sale was held last Saturday. The family will go to Missouri in about two weeks.

The dry weather here is causing trouble with the people. The grass is nearly all burnt up and they are compelled to drive their stock to water at a distance.

Sunday morning Uncle Brack Jones took his two horses to a neighbor's spring to water them.
On starting home he climbed upon the fence to get one of the horses. The horse threw its head down, throwing him over its head.
He struck his left shoulder and side of his head on a rock, bruising him up considerably, but it is not thought seriously. He was speechless for a short time. He managed to get home after a while, but will be laid up some time with a sore shoulder.

Knob Lick.
Needing rain badly.
Frank Collins is visiting in Ohio.
Some corn is tasseling out very low.

The steam shovel is loading considerable dirt.
Cut Shroat is visiting his sister Mrs. Kimbrell.

We are having some very windy, blustery weather.
A lumber car was wrecked near the mines Monday.

V. C. Razor will begin school here Monday morning.
Mr. Editor, how far are we above the sea level? [

Henry Swanigan will move to the mines the first of the week.
[Capt. Pittman's article will be published next week.—Ed.]

Bud Collier spent Friday night at his father Jim Collier's.

Wm. Razor and wife visited Robert Wells and wife Sunday.

Hay harvest has commenced.
The crop will only be fair.

All the boys from here went to Moore's Ferry to play ball Sunday.
Capt. Pittman will commence weighing ore for the company Monday morning.

Ben and Jim Wells and family will move here from Huntington Tuesday to work at the mines.

John Goodpastor fell from a tree at the mines. Luckily he was on the hind end, else he would have been killed; not much hurt as it was.

Wm. Barnes and daughter Mrs.
Whitcomb were on the hunt of their dog, a small pup, which had strayed off a few days ago from Roe's Run.

The Ore Bank and Olympia boys came in from Moore's Ferry very quiet Sunday eve. They were hardly known in the game, so one of the boys reports.

Odessa.
Dr. A. W. Jones has been confined to his bed with flux for several days.

Louis Crump's little boy is getting along very nicely with his attack of fever.

A. T. Jones and family, of Burbridge's Branch, visited at Mrs.
Ruth Jones' Saturday and Sunday.

Quite a number of renters are giving up and proposing to give up their crops to find work in other parts.

W. A. Snedegar is on crutches, suffering with a very sore foot, caused by a wagon bed falling on the foot over two weeks ago.

No rain here yet. It was three months last Sunday since we had any rain to amount to anything and the prospect for a corn crop is gloomy indeed.

Little Gracie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simps Purvis, of Ashland, who came here Sunday last week, took scarlet fever the next day after she arrived at J. T. Gudgell's.

Old Uncle Brackston Jones, of Indian Creek, fell from a horse he was taking to water Sunday morning and fractured one shoulder, from which he is suffering considerably.

Joseph and Leslie Hendrix and Chas. Hornback were blown up with dynamite last week on Lick Branch while endeavoring to place the 15th stick of dynamite in the hole with the drill for 16 more and jammed them off, blowing Joe 57 feet away, Leslie over a fence, and Hornback some distance. Are all doing very well and lucky they were not killed. Hornback will lose one eye and Joe has a broken or cracked bone near the ankle are all the serious injuries so far as we have heard, though all were badly bruised up and their flesh torn considerably.

Stodops.
The dry weather is damaging to tobacco here.
The prospects here are for a light corn crop.

Mrs. Will Mallory, who has been quite sick, is some better.
H. S. Bridges sold a fancy harness mare to Mark Trimble for $110.

the family of their son Buddie Jones, near Sharpsburg, Saturday and Sunday.

The year-old baby daughter of Dee Rudder is getting better of the whooping-cough. His other two children have it also.

Attorney Jas. Brown, of Olive Hill, was the guest of relatives here from Saturday till Monday.
Miss Claudia Waldeck has returned home to Cincinnati, after a protracted visit to her parents here.

treatment at Lexington, is some better.

G. Elgin Sharp spent several days last week at the Olympian Springs.

Clarence Judy, of Judy, visited his brother Robert and attended church here Sunday.

C. M. Crain returned Wednesday from a two-weeks' stay with home people at Russell, Greenup Co.

Alfred Crooks and wife (nee May Saunders) visited relatives and attended meeting here Sunday.

It is getting distressingly dry here. A
